Disclose all property, real and personal, which the debtor owns or in which the debtor has any other legal, equitable, or future interest. Include all property in which the debtor holds rights and powers exercisable for the debtor's own benefit. Also include assets and properties which have no book value, such as fully depreciated assets or assets that were not capitalized. In Schedule A/B, list any executory contracts or unexpired leases. Also list them on Schedule G: Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases (Official Form 206G).

Be as complete and accurate as possible. If more space is needed, attach a separate sheet to this form. At the top of any pages added, write the debtor's name and case number (if known). Also identify the form and line number to which the additional information applies. If an additional sheet is attached, include the amounts from the attachment in the total for the pertinent part.

For Part 1 through Part 11, list each asset under the appropriate category or attach separate supporting schedules, such as a fixed asset schedule or depreciation schedule, that gives the details for each asset in a particular category. List each asset only once. In valuing the debtor's interest, do not deduct the value of secured claims. See the instructions to understand the terms used in this form.

Re: Chapter 7 Bankruptcy Filing
Legal Services Agreement and Engagement Letter

Dear Mr. Haimann:

Pursuant to our recent meeting, please accept this letter as it sets forth the basic terms and conditions upon which Kent A. Gaertner P.C. ("ATTORNEY") will perform legal services for Glenbard Uniform, Inc.. (the "Client") in the above referenced matter (the "Engagement").

This letter shall (1) confirm that the Client has retained ATTORNEY (2) confirm the scope of the Engagement, and (3) describe the basis upon which ATTORNEY will bill for its services.

Scope of Representation

The Client, has asked ATTORNEY to assist in representing them in:

1. The assessment of their assets and liabilities.
2. Assisting the Client with consolidating information on assets and liabilities to facilitate the Chapter 7 filing,
3. Analyzing past financial history of the Client as it may effect the Chapter 7 including transfers and preferences.
4. The preparation and filing of a Chapter 7 bankruptcy petition on behalf of the Client.
5. Representation of the Client' interests in dealings with the appointed Chapter 7 Trustee and with creditors.

The representation does not include representation of the Client in connection with any litigation arising out of the Chapter 7 filing, including, but not limited to, depositions under Rule 2004 or adversary complaints regarding discharge or dischargeability. At this time, no such litigation is expected. However, if such litigation is instituted, a new fee arrangement will be entered into between the Client and ATTORNEY to cover such representation.

Determination of Fees and Expenses

Legal work varies greatly. Although we are often engaged by our client to perform specific and limited tasks, our primary role as legal advisors is to offer our knowledge, experience and independent judgment. Recognizing this, our focus in charging for services is to arrive at a fee, which is fair and appropriate considering all of the circumstances.

Legal services provided by attorneys are fee for service arrangements generally involving the payment of a retainer fee to the attorney. In this matter, the Client, through its principals, authorized agents or assigns, have agreed to retain ATTORNEY with an advance payment retainer of $2,000.00 (the "retainer") for services rendered as delineated above. ATTORNEY proposes to charge the Client a flat fee for time and services, as delineated in the scope of representation above, expended on the matter ($2,000.00 attorney fee and $335.00 filing fee to the Clerk of the Bankruptcy Court). Should the representation be terminated prior to the filing of a Chapter 7 bankruptcy for any reason, ATTORNEY shall be entitled to be paid for the time expended on the file at a rate of $350.00 per hour plus reimbursement of its costs expended. If any portion of the retainer is unearned or not required for expenses, it will be refunded to the client. Each Attorney in the law firm concentrates his or her practice in the area of bankruptcy and bankruptcy litigation and is duly licensed and authorized to practice law in the State of Illinois and United States District Court for the Northern District of Illinois. Non-attorney support staff time although expended, will NOT be billed out without prior approval by the Client, and will be billed at the rate of bill $125 per hour. All legal services will be performed under the supervision of the owning member attorneys of the law firm.

The retainer stated above shall be considered an "advance payment" retainer pursuant to Dowling v. Chicago Options Associates, Inc. 875 N.E.2d, 1012, Ill., 2007 and pursuant to Rule 1.15 of the Illinois Rules of Professional Conduct. This means that the retainer is considered earned when paid in anticipation of future work. The retainer will not be held in a client trust account but instead will be deposited into the general operating account of our law firm. You have the right to require the funds be held as a "security retainer" which means they remain the Client's property until actually earned by completion of the representation as defined above. The choice of how the retainer is treated (i.e. either security or advanced payment) is the client's alone. However, ATTORNEY will not agree to represent the Client unless the retainer is an advanced payment retainer. The special purpose for the advanced payment retainer is to protect the funds from the claims of creditors. Client's funds that are held in a security retainer are still the property of the Client until earned by the lawyer. Therefore funds held in a security retainer could be garnished by a creditor or turned over to a Bankruptcy Trustee. This would cause

ATTORNEY to have no recourse for payment of its fee by the Client/ Debtor. Given the financial condition of the Client and the possibility that ATTORNEY could lose the retainer to a creditor or a bankruptcy trustee, if it were determined to be property of the bankruptcy estate, the advance payment retainer offers protection to the Client and ATTORNEY that the fees for the representation will be available.

ATTORNEY operates as an integrated unit. A client who calls upon a particular lawyer in fact retains the entire firm and have at its disposal all of the expertise and resources that the firm have to offer. Therefore, the lawyer who serves as one's principal contact at the firm may assign the work to another lawyer who have experience in the particular area involved or who is in a better position to perform the legal work most efficiently. In assigning work within the firm, ATTORNEY strives to achieve the most efficient mix of seniority and expertise, with the goal of providing effective representation to our client economically.

ATTORNEY cannot quote a specific flat or final fee for services in this matter because we cannot control or predict the nature or extent of the services that may have to be provided. However, please be assured that we are sensitive to your needs, and that we will do our best at all times to minimize fees and expenses to the extent possible consistent with the furnishings of effective legal services.

In addition to our fees for services, we also bill our client for out-of-pocket expenses incurred on their behalf. Reimbursable out-of-pocket expenses include the following: filing fees, computerized legal research fees, electronic access and filing fees, photocopying expenses, long distance telephone toll charges, telecopy charges, necessary travel expenses, and so forth. Please be advised of our firm policy that client are required to advance or pay directly any disbursements in excess of $300.

Termination

The Client may terminate our engagement as counsel at any time for any reason. ATTORNEY may withdraw as the Client's legal counsel or from our representation of the Client in any particular matter for good cause, which includes the Client's failure to perform their obligations described in this letter, failure to timely make payment for services rendered and expenses advanced, refusal to cooperate with us or to follow our advice on a material matter, or any other fact or circumstances that would render our continuing representation unlawful or unethical. If and when our services to the Client conclude, all unpaid fees and costs will be immediately due and payable

Duties

Effective legal representation requires a high level of cooperation between attorney and client. Therefore, by executing this letter, the Client agree to cooperate with us, keep us fully and truthfully informed of all developments, and to abide by this letter. In turn, we are agreeing to provide those legal services reasonably required to represent the Client with respect to the matters described above and to take reasonable steps to keep the Client informed of our progress and to respond to the Client' inquiries. Of course, we cannot make any promises or guarantees about the outcome of the matters as to which the Client have engaged us, and nothing in this letter or in our statements should be so construed. When we provide our opinion as to the probable outcome of any matter, it is with the understanding that our opinion is just that, and not a promise or guarantee.

We encourage our client to participate actively in the matters we are handling for them, as they are much closer to the details and effects of their affairs than we are and we wish to be certain that our efforts converge with our client' goal. If at any time you should have a concern, or if we may be of service in another substantive area, we would ask that you raise it with us at once so that we can address your need without delay.

Electronic Communications

Our client and our law firm increasingly rely upon electronic communication such as e-mail, text-messaging, cellular telephones and electronic faxes (collectively, "Electronic Communications"). By engaging us, absent the Client' specific instructions to the contrary, you authorize us to use Electronic Communications. Because of their nature, Electronic Communications are not as secure as more traditional lines of communications, such as hard-wired telephones and telephonic faxes, U.S. Mail or couriers. The Client understands that some risk exists that any and all Electronic Communications could be intercepted by an unauthorized third party, and the Client hereby accepts the risk. With respect to the use of Electronic Communications for matters of particular sensitivity or for information that could be compromising or damaging to the Client, the Client acknowledges that each contact person with whom we are or will be directly working, including SPRINGER BROWN, have the authority to consent specifically to the use of Electronic Communications for such matters. We shall also consider communications from the Client by Electronic Communications as specific consent to respond by Electronic Communications. If the Client do not wish to use Electronic Communications for any particular matter or matters, you will so advise us in writing, or will so advise us orally and confirm the instruction promptly in writing.

Other Client/Conflicts of Interest

As a specialty boutique law firm, it is common for ATTORNEY to be engaged to represent more than one party in a significant bankruptcy or work-out / debt reorganization case. We do not believe that a conflict of interest is raised if we represent more than one party in a Bankruptcy case, as long as all of our client are adverse to the debtor. We currently have reviewed the case and as of the date of this legal engagement letter, ATTORNEY does not represent any parties adverse to the Client. However, as is usually the case in any bankruptcy proceeding, the existence of other, non-listed or otherwise unknown parties may give rise to multiple representation by SPRINGER BROWN. In fact, we often find that our client generally benefit from the economics of scale that arise when fees and costs can be spread among a number of different parties. Therefore, the Client should be aware that we may in the future be contacted to represent other creditors or non-Debtor parties in interest of the above referenced and related Bankruptcy proceeding. Of course, we will do our standard check to assure that no new client raises an adverse and/or conflict issue and we will notify you promptly if we become aware of a potential or a pre-existing conflict. However, if we do not perceive a conflict of interest, we may accept other client without seeking the Client' approval. In the unlikely event that the Client decides to take a position adverse to that of another one of our client in this case (a possibility we do not foresee at this time) then we will not be able to represent the Client in that dispute.

If the foregoing terms upon which we propose to be engaged and the nature of the engagement are acceptable, please sign or please have a duly authorized representative of the Client sign and return to me the enclosed copy of this letter. Thank you.

Sincerely,

KENT A. GAERTNER P.C.
